THE MAN AND HIS PICTURE.

Masculine Half of the Race Rates Old Age Much More Than Do the Women.

The man was about 55, says the Philadelphia Record. He was rather bald. His wrinkles were many. His mustache was gray. The head of his cheeks and neck hung rather soft and flabby. Nevertheless, he looked vigorous and intelligent—he was handsome take him altogether than he had been at 40. But he brought out a photograph of himself at 40 which hardly resembled him, so much had he changed, and. "If you want to print my picture, use this," he said to the reporter; "but don't lose it, for it's the only one I've got of myself at that age and I'd like to keep it, for, you know, I don't grow any younger." "I'd rather have your picture as you are to-day," said the reporter; "for you are handsomer now than you were at 40." "Oh, no; I am too old and wrinkled and bald now," said the man. "Use the 40-year-old picture." The reporter exclaimed with a puzzled laugh: "So many men are like you. Though they are old they insist on having young pictures printed. They fail to realize how much more interesting and pleasing their face is in old age, if they have lived a fairly wise and industrious life. I've had men of 70 actually who have given me reproduction photographs of themselves at 25. Women don't do this. I believe men hate old age more than women do." "I hate it," said the other grimly.

A Thousand Dollars Thrown Away

Mr. W. W. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it. For sale at Peoples drug store.

WILL COME APRIL 1.

Congregational Minister Recommends Date of Beginning Work.

A letter from Rev. Mr. Pershing, received last night, states that if desirable he can assume his duties as pastor of the Congregational church the first of the month. He will be asked to come at that time.

One reason why it is desired that the work begin as speedily as possible is that the Missouri State association of Congregational churches, embracing this country, meets here in May, and advance preparations need to be made.

The church has assurance of considerable accessions as soon as a pastor becomes a fixture. Mrs. Pershing will follow her husband as soon as the spring term of school closes.

A Night Alarm.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night, is the brassy cough of croup, which sounds like the children's death knell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly cures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Mannington, Ky., writes: "My three year old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. For sale at Peoples drug store. dw

A New Restaurant.

G. A. Whitney opens his new restaurant in the McGeorge building three doors north of the court house today. Mr. Whitney has been a successful restaurant man and his new venture will have a good trade.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months; the doctors stated he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago, and since then we always keep a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds, it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle at Peoples Drug Store. dw

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of of fatal disease if taken in time. For
